Workshop 1. (Beginners)

"I can't paint"

"I want to learn to paint"

"I want to paint again like I used to"

These workshops are for anyone who thinks they can't paint, but would like to have a go anyway. A themed session with a choice of 3 Zappy designs.

Pre-drawn Zappy designs on each pot will ensure the session is fun & very rewarding, with surprising results.

Good quality fine brushes with a good choice of safe water based paint colours are always used with plenty of 1-2-1 guidance & patience from Lynn.

Many hidden talents will be exposed encouraging confidence in oneself.

Minimum number per workshop: 6

Maximum number per workshop: 8

Duration: 1.5hrs

Cost per person: £12

Workshop 2. (Intermediate)

"I just love to paint"

"I love being creative"

These workshops will have everyone who loves being creative wanting to start their own Zappy style collection of pots for themselves & as unique gifts for the family.

A lovely way to show-off their talents.

A themed session with a choice of 3-5 Zappy designs to copy from.

Good quality fine brushes with a good choice of safe water based paint colours are always used with plenty of 1-2-1 guidance & patience from Lynn.

The aims & mission of Zappy Pot Painting Workshops

Inspire & develop social skills.

Uncover hidden creativity

Discover a refreshing form of therapeutic relaxation

Build new found confidence & courage to 'try something different'

Lynn the founder & creator of all things Zappy wishes to share her skills & passion as she continues her journey developing Zappy designs; an idea born from her heart & a constant inspiration from everyday life in full colour.

From the very beginning; The first Zappy design was white daisies on a red painted sweeping brush as a gift for Granny. With now over 50 designs, Lynn has shared her ideas & passion in more than one country, worked with the very young to the older generation both within her Studio in Altrincham & at Clubs / Organisations such as the W.I. & schools.
